

Raymond James welcomes the Angas Shick Group

Toronto, June 3, 2014 - Terry Hetherington, Executive Vice President and Head of the Private Client Group of Raymond James Ltd., is pleased to announce that David Angas, Linda Shick and the Angas Shick Group have joined the Scotia Plaza 53rd branch of Raymond James Ltd. in Toronto.

“David and Linda bring an incredible blend of experience, expertise and an unwavering focus on doing what is right for their clients,” Says Terry Hetherington. “We are so pleased they chose Raymond James; their high level of conviction, professionalism and client focus make them incredible partners.”

David Angas, Senior Vice President, Private Client Group, and Financial Advisor, brings more than 30 years of combined business experience in investing, financial planning and private wealth management. David is an active community volunteer and serves on a number of charitable boards in his hometown of Oakville. He has been a Rotarian for over 30 years and currently chairs an international committee on water providing humanitarian relief in sub-Saharan Africa.

Linda Shick, CIM®, Senior Vice President, Private Client Group, and Portfolio Manager, is a Chartered Investment Manager. She offers high net worth clients comprehensive tailored wealth solutions to achieve their objectives in a dynamic environment. She has her US registration (FINRA) and is able to offer cross border solutions to US clients. She is a Board of Director of the St. Felix Centre in downtown Toronto and enjoys volunteering in various community projects.

They are joined by Christopher J. Angas, Associate Financial Advisor, who assists in all the various aspects of the business, including administration, client service and trading.

“We look forward to building on our client relationships and leveraging the full power of Raymond James to enhance our ability to deliver world class wealth management solutions for our clients,” says David Angas.
